General Information:

1. You have 1 week in the Fall, Spring and, summer to adjust your course schedule (add and drop courses). See the Southern University at Baton Rouge academic calendar for deadline dates.
2. No courses will be added after the official census date (14th class day for Fall and Spring/7th class day for Summer). This includes changing a section and/or instructor for a course.
3. If you drop a course after the official census date (14th class day for Fall and Spring/7th class day for Summer), you will be responsible for paying the required fee as listed in the Southern University at Baton Rouge catalog.
4. Students who drop a course after the official census date (14th class day) will receive a grade of “W” in the course.
5. Return the original signed form to the Registrar’s Office with proof of payment (receipt) for processing.

Financial Aid Eligibility:

1. A change in your enrollment status may result in a revised financial aid award. Some financial aid programs require FULL-TIME enrollment.
2. Under the Satisfactory Academic Policy (SAP), you must successfully complete 67% of all attempted semester credit hours (SCH) or your future financial aid will be jeopardized. “W” and Incomplete (“I”) grades will be included in the number of attempted credits for this calculation.
3. If there is a need to repeat a course, please visit the Office of Financial Aid to determine if the course is eligible for funding.
4. Academic probation can affect your financial aid eligibility. Refer to the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy in the Southern University at Baton Rouge catalog.
5. If you drop a course after the official census date (14th class day), you will be responsible for FORFEITURE CHARGES – a percentage of tuition based on what point in the semester you drop. This policy applies to official withdrawal from the University. Your financial aid may be affected!
6. You must be enrolled in at least 6 semester credit hours (SCH) to be eligible for most forms of financial aid.
