

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY
AND AGRICULTURAL & MECHANICAL COLLEGE

Chairperson, Undergraduate Nursing Program (BSN)

Job Description:

Under the general direction of the Dean, School of Nursing, the Chairperson of the undergraduate program in nursing will provide overall leadership, direction, and management of the program. The Chairperson will be expected to direct continued development of the undergraduate program, facilitate research, scholarly activity and grants. He/she will be responsible for the delivery of quality education and prepare future clinicians/faculty. In addition, this individual will be responsible for staffing and staff supervision, budgets and day to day operations

Minimal Qualifications:

Minimal rank at the level of Associate Professor, holds a terminal degree in nursing. Minimum of two years teaching experience at the level of assistant professor, and a current license with certification in the field. Prior administrative experience in academia preferred; and excellent oral, written, and communication skills.

Salary:

$90,000 - $100,000. Commensurate with required experience and qualifications.

How to Apply:

To apply, send cover letter, curriculum vita, official transcripts and three letters of recommendation via email to: suson@subr.edu.

Applicant must also complete SUS Application for Employment (External Candidates) located at <https://www.sus.edu/page/human-resources-forms> and list the following in the application: Job Applied for: Chairperson (BSN). Department Applying to: College of Nursing and Allied Health.

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY
AND AGRICULTURAL & MECHANICAL COLLEGE

Chairperson, Graduate Nursing Programs (MSN, DNP, PhD)

Job Description:

Provide overall leadership, direction, and management of the MSN, DNP, and PhD programs. Expected to direct continued development of the graduate nursing programs based on national accreditation standards and state board of nursing regulatory requirements. Responsible for delivery of quality education and program evaluation. Works collaboratively with the Dean in maintaining budgets, personnel actions, and supervision of faculty. Demonstrates a commitment for creating a caring student centered, teaching/learning environment. Expected to be an exemplary leader in scholarship, service, and teaching.

Minimal Qualifications:

Minimal rank at the level of Associate Professor, holds a terminal degree (Doctorate) in nursing, APRN licensure preferred. Minimum of three years' experience in a nursing education administrative role at the level of Associate Professor. Possess a current unencumbered Louisiana license. Possess excellent communication and collaborative skills.

Salary:

$90,000 - $105,000. Commensurate with required experience and qualifications.

How to Apply:

To apply, send cover letter, curriculum vita, official transcripts and three letters of recommendation via email to: suson@subr.edu.

Applicant must also complete SUS Application for Employment (External Candidates) located at <https://www.sus.edu/page/human-resources-forms> and list the following in the application: Job Applied for: Chairperson (MSN, DNP, PhD). Department Applying to: College of Nursing and Allied Health.

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY
AND AGRICULTURAL & MECHANICAL COLLEGE

Assistant Professor (3 Vacancies)

Job Description:

Minimal rank at the level of Assistant Professor. Teaching responsibilities in the School of Nursing; maintaining a profile of scholarly productivity including research, publications, professional presentations; active involvement in school of nursing, college and university committees as well as service activities; advisement, supervision, and mentoring of students; provides quality instruction and utilizes evidence-based, innovative teaching pedagogies to facilitate student learning; participates in design and review of nursing curricula; evaluate student attainment of student learning in classroom and/or clinical setting; maintains life long-learning and has active membership in professional nursing organizations at local, state, and national levels. Applicant must possess a strong commitment to teaching, scholarship, practice and service. Demonstrates excellent oral and written communication skills

Minimal Qualifications:

Minimal rank at the level of Assistant Professor and hold a terminal (doctoral) degree in nursing. Previous teaching experience preferred. Current unencumbered Louisiana nursing license required. Applicant must possess a strong commitment to teaching, scholarship, practice and service. Demonstrates excellent oral and written communication skills.

Salary:

$70,000 - $75,000. Commensurate with required experience and qualifications.

How to Apply:

To apply, send cover letter, curriculum vita, official transcripts and three letters of recommendation via email to: suson@subr.edu.

Applicant must also complete SUS Application for Employment (External Candidates) located at <https://www.sus.edu/page/human-resources-forms> and list the following in the application: Job Applied for: Assistant Professor-School of Nursing. Department Applying to: College of Nursing and Allied Health.