After an Assault:

Get to a safe place:
Get away from your assailant to a location where you can call for help.

Do not shower or bathe:
Get medical attention immediately at the SU Health Center or the nearest hospital emergency room.

Contact the authorities:
Call 911 or campus police to report the incident right away. Provide the dispatcher with time, place, and a description of the assailant.

Get medical attention:
Even if you do not feel like you need to, seek medical attention at doctor's office, urgent care clinic or a hospital as soon as possible. Doctors can help collect vital evidence and threat your injuries directly after an assault.

Moving Forward:
- Make safe arrangements
- Seek counseling
- Remember, “Don’t blame yourself.”
