Exam Schedule (Tentative)

Midterm – During the midterm week as scheduled by the university.

Final — During the final week as scheduled by the university.

All exams are comprehensive and/or they can be in a form of class presentation or take-home focusing on undergraduate level research activities. Assignments can also be used in lieu of exams or as part of it.

There will be an assignment given almost every other week. Assignments will also be counted toward midterm and final exams.

Assignments submitted on time will also be counted toward class attendance.

Moodle will be used for all the class activities (for the class notes, topics to be covered/studied, assignment announcements and submissions, grading, etc.) Hence, students are expected to check their Moodle accounts frequently.

Guidelines

- 1. Due for an assignment is the next class day unless otherwise said.
- 2. NO due extension.
- 3. NO sharing (Punished severely!) Copying is considered scholastic dishonesty and is covered in University policy. Cheating will be prosecuted both in terms of grading and University sanctions.

Any similarity ratio over 20% based on Moodle's Turnitin reports is subject to further investigation.

- 4. NO late submission (A late submission is worth ZERO!)
- 5. NO curving.
- 6. NO Phones of any kind during class time.
- 7. NO makeup exam. At the instructor's discretion, the student may be allowed to use the final exam or the other one to cover the missed one at a certain percentage.
- 8. Reading the relevant chapters in the text book and reviving the class notes for the current topic being discussed before and after the class is expected.
- 9. At any time without any advance notice, a short pop-up quiz should be expected. Those quizzes may also be considered as assignments or bonus points to the exams.
- 10. At any given time without any advance notice, a new homework/programming assignment/project might be given in the class or through e-mails. Even if you have to miss the class, you are still responsible for it. Instructor may choose certain assignments or certain questions in a particular assignment to grade instead of all.
- 11. For any given assignment/project, it is your responsibility to clarify ambiguous parts. Sometimes, certain things might be left questionable by intention to challenge you to think and to ask questions about them.
- 12. IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO KEEP ALL THE GRADED MATERIALS GIVEN BACK TO YOU IN THEIR ORIGINAL FORMS UNTIL THE SEMESTER IS OVER AND TO PROVIDE WHEN ASKED.
- 13. All the graded materials will be discarded if they are not picked up within 3 days.
- 14. For all the questions regarding a particular assignment grade you got, you should contact to the instructor. It has to be resolved within 5 business days.
- 15. Graduate students might get more assignments and/or different ones
- 16. Any failure of the any equipment that you use to do/submit/print the assignment within the last 48 hours is NOT an acceptable excuse. You had better expect such a bad luck all the time and you should start right away.
- 17. The programming/assignment/project guidelines that will be given to you should be observed very seriously. Even if your work produces the right output, you will lose 30 to 50 percent of the total grade if the guidelines are not followed.
- Students with documented disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact the Disability Services Coordinator in the Office of Disability Services, 246 A.C. Blanks Hall, 225-771-3546 (Voice), 225-771-3949 (Fax), as soon as possible to ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. Students who need accommodations must be registered with the Office of Disability Services. Students are responsible for informing the instructor of any instructional accommodations and/or special learning needs at the beginning of the semester. All discussions will remain confidential.
