

Southern University and A & M College
Human Nutrition and Food Section
Dietetic Internship Program

Dietetic Internship Applicant - Video Interview Questions

Directions: Introduce yourself to the internship committee. The following information should be included: Tell them where you live, where you went to school, describe your interests and hobbies.

Please provide concise responses to the questions below.

1. Why did you select the Dietetic Internship at Southern University and A & M College? How will you add value to our institution as an intern?
2. What are your long and short range goals? What and why did you establish these goals and how are you preparing yourself to achieve them?
3. Describe yourself using 3 words, with one word describing strength, weakness, and the third, up to you. How has your “weakness”, impaired your ability to achieve a goal? What steps have you taken to improve upon your weakness?
4. Describe a situation in which you have used problem solving skills in a work-related or school related event?
5. Describe how you most effectively learn a new skill.
6. Describe how you have handled a situation where you disagreed with a policy or someone in authority, e.g., a supervisor or instructor, and what was the outcome?
7. Describe your views on cultural diversity as it relates to the dietetics profession. Have you ever worked in an ethnically diverse setting? If so, describe what that experience was like for you?
8. What motivates you in your work?

Make a video of yourself answering the questions and place on a jump drive. Write your name clearly on the jump drive. Send to the Internship Director (along with your resume and application fees) at the following address. Deadline for mailing is February 15, 2022.

*NOTE: This is a virtual interview, therefore professional attire is expected.***

Valerie Richardson, Ph.D., RDN, LDN
Director, Dietetic Internship Program
Human Nutrition and Food Program
Southern University and A & M College
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70813